LR02-AR00-20 Attorney and Personal Representative Fee Guidelines for Decedents' Estates

A. Preamble. The Allen Superior Court, Civil Division has adopted these guidelines in an effort to achieve the following objectives:

- (1) Establish uniformity in determining a fair and reasonable fee for supervised estates;
- (2) Provide a guideline to assist the Court and interested parties in determining fair and reasonable fees;
- (3) Provide a guide to attorneys so they can discuss fees that may be reasonably incurred with their clients at the onset of administration;
- (4) Assist the legal profession to arrive at a fair and reasonable fee for employment in estate matters.

Every attorney and personal representative has an obligation to request a fee which is fair and reasonable for the work performed, taking into account the Rules of Professional Conduct applicable to attorneys admitted to practice law in the State of Indiana, and other relevant criteria. Except under extraordinary circumstances, a request for fees should not exceed the fees authorized in these guidelines. In an uncomplicated estate, fees should be less than those listed in these guidelines. Fees must always bear a reasonable relationship to the services rendered.

B. Principles Applicable to Fee Determinations. Although these fee guidelines have been promulgated by the Court for probate matters, it is important that attention be directed to the following criteria when seeking an award of fees:

- (1) The time and labor required, the novelty, complexity, or difficulty of the questions involved, the skill required to perform the services properly, including a determination as to how much of the attorney's time was devoted to ministerial functions;
- (2) The nature and extent of the responsibilities assumed by the attorney and the results obtained, including the considerations of the identity of the personal representative and the character of the probate and non-probate transferred assets;
- (3) The sufficiency of assets properly available to pay for legal services, and whether the attorney's duties are expanded by the existence of non-probate assets because of their inclusion for tax purposes;
- (4) The timeliness with which the necessary services are performed consistent with statutory requirements, Local Civil Rules of the Allen Superior Court, Indiana Trial Rules, and applicable Rules of Professional Conduct; and
- (5) Attorneys shall discuss their fees and the fees of the Personal Representative at the time they are retained in all probate matters.

C. Attorney Fee Guidelines - General Administration:

- (1) Gross estate services are considered to normally include: probating the Will, opening of the estate, qualifying the personal representative, preparing and filing the Inventory, paying claims, collecting assets, preparing and filing non-extraordinary petitions, preparing and filing of Fiduciary Income Tax Return, preparing and filling all tax returns and schedules, obtaining Court Orders thereon, paying taxes, preparing and filing the Final Report, obtaining an Order approving same, distributing assets, obtaining discharge of the Personal Representative, and serving all notices on interested parties throughout the proceedings. This list shall not be considered exclusive.

(2) Gross Estate Services-Minimum Fee of $500.00 Plus:

Up to $100,000. Not to exceed.....	6%
Next $100,000. Not to exceed.....	4%
Next $100,000. Not to exceed.....	3%
Next $100,000. Not to exceed.....	2%
Over $400,000. Not to exceed.....	1%

(3) Miscellaneous-Extraordinary Services:

(a) Sale of Real Estate fees shall be based upon a reasonable hourly rate.

(b) Federal Estate Tax Returns: Fees for Federal Estate Tax Returns are allowed only if a return is required because of non-administered property, and shall be based only on assets not listed on Indiana Inheritance Tax Schedule. A base fee of \$750.00 or one percent (1%) is allowed for the first \$100,000. Of the non-administered assets of the gross estate as determined for Federal Estate Tax purposes plus: $\frac{3}{4}$ of one percent (1%) of the next \$150,000 of non-administered assets of the gross estate, plus $\frac{1}{2}$ of one percent (1%) on all non-administered assets of the gross estate in excess of \$250,000.

(c) (5) Other than as provided above, fees shall be based upon a reasonable hourly rate.

(d) Attorney's expertise in probate matters will be considered by the Court in determining the applicable reasonable hourly rate.

D. Attorney Fee Guidelines - Wrongful Death Administration: The Court recognizes that in most instances a retainer or contingent fee agreement is an appropriate method by which legal services can be provided in wrongful death claims. Accordingly, fees shall be allowed under those agreements if, at the time of settlement of the claim, it is shown to the Court's satisfaction:

- (1) The personal representative was, prior to entering such agreement, fully informed as to all aspects of the arrangement;
- (2) The agreement is fair and reasonable; and
- (3) The fee sought is fair and reasonable.

E. Extraordinary Fee Requests.

(1) Fee petitions requesting extraordinary fees must set forth services rendered with specificity. Extraordinary service may include: sale of personal property, sale of real property, partial distributions, will contest actions, contesting claims, adjusting tax matters, contested hearings, petitions for instructions, heirship determinations, generating additional income for the estate, etc.

(2) All petitions under this section will be set for hearing, with notice to all interested parties. If all interested parties sign a waiver and consent stating they have been advised that the additional fee request exceeds the Court's guidelines and that the services as detailed are extraordinary, the Court may, in its discretion, determine if whether a hearing is required.

(3) A waiver and consent for allowing fees in excess of these Local Rule Guidelines shall not be merely a pro forma waiver and consent, but must be in substantially the form as set forth in these rules and Appendix H.

F. Unsupervised Estates. The Court will not determine fees in an unsupervised administration.

G. Filing of Fee Petition. Before any fee is paid in a supervised estate, a petition for allowance of the fee shall be filed and determined by the Court. A request for fees will be considered only under the following circumstances:

- (1) The Final Report is ready to be filed, or
- (2) As necessary for purposes of an estate fiduciary income tax deduction, or
- (3) As necessary due to extraordinary circumstances.

H. Payment of Fees. Except where payment has been authorized under Local Rule 23 G.2 or G.3 above, fees are payable one half (1/2) upon approval of fee petition and one half (1/2) upon approval of the Final Report.

I. Personal Representative Fees

(1) Professional: The Court will approve Personal Representative fees at the applicable prevailing rate, provided:

- (a) Those rates are on file with and approved by the Court;
- (b) The rate results in a reasonable fee in light of all circumstances; and
- (c) A description of services rendered in support of a request for fees is filed.

(2) Non-Professional: Fees for non-professional Personal Representative services may be allowed. However, such fees shall not exceed one half (1/2) the fee allowed the attorney, provided:

- (a) The fee is reasonable in light of all circumstances; and
- (b) A description of services rendered, including time spent with hourly rate in support of the request is filed.

(3) Attorney as Personal Representative: The Court discourages attorneys from assuming the dual role of attorney and Personal Representative in the same estate. When the attorney does serve as the Personal Representative, an additional amount not to exceed one-third (1/3) of the attorney fee may be allowed, provided:

- (a) The fee is reasonable in light of all circumstances; and
- (b) A description of services rendered including time spent with hourly rate in support of the request is filed.

(4) Fee Payments and Extraordinary Fee Requests: The Court will apply the same procedures to the allowance and drawing of Personal Representative fees and to a Personal Representative's extraordinary fee request as it does to attorney fee requests, as outlined above.

*Adopted as Superior Civil Attorney Fee Guidelines, effective August 15, 1990.

LR02-TR86-22 Conventionally Filed Last Will and Testament

A Last Will and Testament that is filed conventionally shall be retained in the records of the Clerk of the Allen Circuit and Superior Courts for the duration of the administration of the estate, or at least 3 months from the date admitted to probate, whichever time period is longer.

Former Local Civil Rule LR02-AR00-22 amended and renumbered as LR02-TR01-01(C), 2018. Adopted 2018, effective December 1, 2018.

LR02-TR79-23 Selection of a Special Judge Pursuant to TR 79(H)

- A. Appointment by Clerk. If a special judge is not appointed pursuant to TR 79(D), the Clerk of the Court shall select a special judge (on a rotating basis) from a list consisting of judicial officers eligible under TR 79(J).

- B. Certification to the Supreme Court. In cases in which no judge is eligible to serve as special judge or the particular circumstances of a case warrant selection of a special judge by the Indiana Supreme Court, the appropriate Allen County Judge may certify the case to the Indiana Supreme Court for appointment of a special judge.

Reincorporated into the Local Civil Rules of the Allen Superior & Circuit Court effective January 1, 2015. Renumbered as Local Civil Rule LR02-TR79-23 in 2018, effective December 1, 2018.

Time to Serve, Disputes

- A. Interrogatory Preparation. Interrogatories shall be tailored specifically to the cause in which they are served and be numbered consecutively to facilitate response.
- B. Interrogatory Limit.
- (1) A party may serve on any other party no more than fifty (50) written interrogatories, including subparts. For purposes of this rule, each question asked, as well as each subpart, constitutes a separate interrogatory, regardless of whether that part is logically or factually related to another subpart.
- (2) The following interrogatories shall not be counted against the above-set fifty (50) interrogatory limit:
- (a) general identifying and background information of a party concerning a party's full name, address, birth date, education history, employment history, criminal history, and past lawsuits or claims;
 - (b) interrogatories identifying expert witnesses, the name and, if known, the address and telephone number of each individual who may be called as a witness (expert or otherwise), and/or who has discoverable information;
 - (c) interrogatories asking to identify and describe by category and location all documents, electronically stored information, photographs, videos, written or recorded statements and tangible things that may be used to support a party's claims or defenses; and
 - (d) interrogatories asking to identify any insurance agreement under which an insurance business may be liable to satisfy all or part of a possible judgment in the action or to indemnify or reimburse for payments made to satisfy any judgment.
- C. Serving in Excess of the Limit. Any party desiring to serve interrogatories in excess of the limit set above shall either:
- (1) file a stipulation of the parties, agreeing to the additional interrogatories; or
 - (2) if agreement cannot be obtained, file a written motion requesting leave of the Court to serve more than fifty (50) interrogatories. The motion must set forth those additional proposed interrogatories, and must explain their necessity. Full compliance with Trial Rule 26(F) is required.
- D. Interrogatory Answers and Objections. Answers or objections to interrogatories under T.R. 31 or 33 must set forth in full the interrogatories being answered or objected to immediately preceding the answer or objection.
- E. Limit on Requests for Admission. Ordinarily, a party may not serve more than 30 requests for admission on another party (not counting requests that relate to the authenticity of a document). A party wanting to serve more requests must fully comply with Trial Rule 26(F), and file a motion setting forth the proposed additional requests and reason why they are necessary.

F. Requests for Admissions Served on an Unrepresented Party. A party desiring to deem as admitted Trial Rule 36 requests for admission propounded to an unrepresented party must:

- (1) serve the requests for admissions on the unrepresented party pursuant to the manner of service set forth in Trial Rule 4.1, 4.2, 4.3, or 4.5;
- (2) file proof of service;
- (3) file a motion to Deem Facts Admitted; and,
- (4) attach a copy of the request for admissions to the motion.

G. Time to Serve.

- (1) General Discovery. All written discovery, whether directed to a party or nonparty to an action, must be served at least thirty-three (33) days prior to the expiration of any discovery deadline which is established by the Court. Counsel may not serve discovery requests after this deadline unless they first seek and obtain leave of Court to serve a belated request, and show good cause for the request. In such event, the proposed belated discovery request must be filed with the motion, and the opposing party must receive the request with service of the motion. However, the opposing party need not respond to the motion until the Court grants the motion.
- (2) Requests for Admission. Requests for Admissions shall not be served earlier than thirty (30) days after the responding party has answered or otherwise responded to the Complaint. If no Answer or other responsive pleading has been timely filed, Requests for Admission shall not be served until thirty (30) days after the responsive pleading was due.

H. Discovery Disputes. The discovery process is intended to be largely self-actuating, with minimal Court supervision.

- (1) The Court will strictly enforce the informal resolution of discovery disputes in accordance with Trial Rule 26(F). The Court may deny any discovery motion filed pursuant to Trial Rule 27 through 37, if the party filing the motion has not fully complied with the requirements of Trial Rule 26(F).
- (2) Upon strict compliance with Trial Rule 26(F), the Court may compel or limit discovery or enter any appropriate sanction, or may set the matter for hearing.
- (3) Strict compliance with Trial Rule 26(F) means a telephonic or face-to-face meeting. Discovery dispute motions must include the date and time the meeting took place.
- (4) If counsel advises the Court, by way of motion or response thereto, that opposing counsel has refused or delayed resolution of the discovery dispute, the Court may, after hearing, impose appropriate sanctions, as permitted by the Indiana Trial Rules.

(5) The Court may grant a motion to compel third-party discovery without a hearing and without strict compliance with Trial Rule 26(F) upon good cause shown.

- I. Motion to Strike. A party who has been served with discovery may file a motion to strike specific discovery requests as excessive, oppressive or repetitive, after fully complying with Trial Rule 26(F). The motion shall typically be set for hearing and does not serve to extend the time for answering interrogatories which are not in dispute. The motion to strike must comply with Local Rule 9 regarding Motion Practice.

Adopted as Discovery: Interrogatories, Requests for Admission, Time to Serve, effective January 1, 2015. Amended in 2018, renumbered as Local Civil Rule LR02-TR33-24, and effective December 1, 2018. Amended 2019, effective October 31, 2019.

LR02-TR42-25 Consolidation of Cases

Trial Rule 42 permits consolidation of cases for specific purposes, but generally not actual consolidation of the entire cases. Consistent with Trial Rule 42, upon the motion of a party and hearing or stipulation, the Court may enter orders in related cases to consolidate the cases for specific purposes, such as for case management, discovery, mediation, hearings, trial, etc. The consolidated cases remain as separate cases and do not lose their original, individual cause numbers, captions, identity, or chronological case history.

A proposed Order substantially similar to Appendix I shall be filed along with the Motion to Consolidate.

Adopted as Consolidation of Cases, effective January 1, 2015. Amended in 2018, renumbered as Local Civil Rule LR02-TR42-25, and effective December 1, 2018.

All provisions of this rule shall be construed in accordance with Indiana Supreme Court Administrative Rule 9 – Access to Court Records.

- A. Juror Privacy. Personal information of a juror or prospective juror not disclosed in open court shall be confidential, other than for use by the parties or their counsel. The Court shall maintain confidentiality of juror personal information consistent with the constitutional and statutory rights of the parties.
- B. Public Access to Juror Names. Juror names shall not be used in open court or on the record. During trial proceedings, all jurors and prospective jurors shall be referred to only by juror number or seat number. The jury administrator shall compile and maintain a master list consisting of lists approved by the Indiana Supreme Court that may be used to select prospective jurors. Once compiled, the master list of names is open to the public for examination as a public record. However, all other information other than the names contained in the master list shall remain confidential.
- C. Access to Juror Information. The Jury Administration Office shall have exclusive access to juror information and disseminate juror information to parties, attorneys, and the public upon request when authorized to do so by this rule.
- (1) The Jury Administration Office shall provide counsel with a copy of Juror Qualification Questionnaires, with the names and addresses redacted, no earlier than two (2) weeks in advance of trial.
- (2) Upon a timely request, the Jury Administration Office shall provide counsel with a complete subpanel list and unredacted Juror Qualification Questionnaires no earlier than the day of trial. The request for unredacted Juror Qualification Questionnaires shall be denied unless the request is made not fewer than seven (7) days prior to the commencement of the trial. The subpanel list and Juror Qualification Questionnaires shall be returned to the Court at the completion of the jury selection process. No photocopies or duplicates shall be made without Court authorization.
- D. Anonymous Juries. Consistent with Indiana case law regarding anonymous juries, the Court may, upon the motion of either party, withhold juror names and addresses from parties and counsel only if the Court 1) enters findings to support a conclusion that there is a strong reason to believe the jury needs protection, and 2) takes reasonable precautions to minimize any prejudicial effects on the parties and to ensure that their fundamental rights are protected. If the Court withholds juror information from one party under this “Anonymous Juries” subsection, the information shall be withheld from all parties.

Adopted as Juror Privacy, effective January 1, 2015. Amended and renumbered in 2018, effective December 1, 2018.

LR02-AR00-27 Preventing Independent Juror Research

- A. Preliminary Instructions. In an effort to reduce the likelihood of a mistrial due to a juror conducting independent research, the Court shall, in its discretion, use a modified version of Indiana Model Civil Jury Instruction 101 upon administering its preliminary jury instructions. A copy of the modified instruction can be found at Appendix J.
- B. Questioning by the Court. At the conclusion of reading the modified form of Model Civil Jury Instruction 101, the Court may, in its discretion, inquire as to the jurors' use of, and their corresponding ability to refrain from, using the technologies discussed in that instruction during the course of the trial. A sampling of questions aimed at achieving this goal can be found at Appendix K. If the Court concludes that a juror is not able to refrain from such use, the Court shall consider removing that juror from service.
- C. Message Concerning Jury Service. In its discretion, the Court may also inquire as to whether the newly chosen jurors would like a message, furnished by the Court, which would explain to members of the public that jurors are not to discuss the facts of the case or any of the issues, facts, or concepts that are in any manner related to the trial. This message can be found at Appendix L.
- D. Statement of Compliance. At the closing of jury selection, the Court may, in its discretion, provide each juror with a copy of the Statement of Compliance found at Appendix M. The Court may require each juror to signal his or her acceptance of the Statement of Compliance, thereby indicating his or her intent to refrain from any prohibited activities.
- E. Short Form Admonishment. When releasing jurors for a short break, the Court shall read the Short Form Admonishment found at Appendix N.
- F. Long Form Admonishment. When releasing jurors for a longer break, such as for lunch or at the conclusion of each day of trial, the Court shall read the Long Form Admonishment found at Appendix O.
- G. Questioning the Jury Following a Recess. Upon resuming a trial, the Court may, in its discretion, question jurors so as to determine if those jurors participated in any activities that may result in the declaration of a mistrial. A listing of questions suggested for this purpose can be found at Appendix P.

*Adopted as Preventing Independent Juror Research, effective January 1, 2015.
Amended in 2018, renumbered as Local Civil Rule LR02-AR00-27, and effective December 1, 2018.*

APPENDIX J MODIFIED INDIANA CIVIL MODEL JURY INSTRUCTION 101

You have been selected as jurors and have taken an oath to well and truly try this case.

Keep an open mind. Do not make a decision about the outcome of this case until you have heard all the evidence, the arguments of counsel, and my final instructions about the law you will apply to the evidence you have heard.

Your decision must be based only on the evidence presented during this trial and my instructions on the law. Therefore, from now until the trial ends, you must not:

- Conduct research on your own or as a group,
- Use dictionaries, the Internet, computers, cell phones, laptops, tablets, or any other resource to gather any information about the issues, facts, or concepts that are in any manner related to this case,
- Investigate the case, conduct any experiments, or attempt to gain any specialized knowledge about the case, or
- Receive assistance in deciding the case from any outside source.

You also must not:

- Use laptops or cell phones in the courtroom or in the jury room while discussing the case,
- Consume any alcohol or drugs that could affect your ability to hear and understand the evidence,
- Read, watch, or listen to anything about this trial from any source whatsoever, including newspapers, radio, television, or the Internet,
- Listen to discussions among, or receive information from, other people about this trial, or
- Visit or view the scene of any event involved in this case, either in person or through the use of Google Maps, Google Earth, or any other internet mapping program. If you happen to pass by the scene, do not stop or investigate.

Finally, you must not:

- Talk to any of the parties, their lawyers, any of the witnesses, or members of the media. If anyone tries to talk to you about this case, you must tell the bailiff or me immediately.

You may discuss the evidence with your fellow jurors during the trial, but only in the jury room, and only when all of you are present. Even though you are permitted to have these discussions, you must not make a decision about the outcome of this case until your final deliberations begin. Until you reach a verdict, do not communicate about this case or your deliberations with anyone else.

In this age of instant electronic communication and research, I want to emphasize that in addition to not talking face to face with anyone else about the case, you must not communicate with anyone or post information about the case, or what you are doing in the case, by any means, including telephone, text messages, email, internet chat rooms, blogs, or social websites, such as Facebook, Twitter, Instagram, LinkedIn, YouTube, and the like.

You also must not Google or otherwise search for any information about the case, or the law that applies to the case, or the people involved in the case, including the parties, witnesses, lawyers, or Judge.

During the trial, you may tell people who need to know that you are a juror, and you may give them information about when you will be required to be in court. But you must not talk with them or others about anything else related to the case. After your service on this jury is concluded, you are free to talk with anyone about the case or do whatever research you wish. If you find it helpful, the Court can provide you with a note that you can furnish to anyone attempting to speak with you about your service here.

The Court recognizes that these rules and restrictions may affect activities that you would consider to be normal and harmless, and I assure you that I am very much aware that I am asking you to refrain from activities that may be very common and very important in your daily lives. That is why I want you to understand why these rules are so important. The law requires these restrictions to ensure the parties have a fair trial based on the evidence that each party has had an opportunity to address. If one or more of you were to get additional information from an outside source, that information might be inaccurate or incomplete, or for some other reason not applicable to this case, and the parties would not have a chance to explain or contradict that information because they would not know about it. That is why it is so important that you base your verdict only on information you receive in this courtroom.

Therefore, our law does not permit jurors to talk about the case with anyone except fellow jurors. The law also does not permit jurors to allow anyone to talk to them about the case. The reason for this is that only jurors are authorized to render a verdict. Only you have been found to be fair, and only you have promised to be fair—no one else has been so qualified.

Our law does not permit you to visit a place discussed in the testimony because you cannot be sure that the place is in the same condition as it was on the day in question. Also, even if it were in the same condition, once you go to a place to evaluate evidence in light of what you see there, you become a witness, not a juror. As a witness, you may now have an erroneous view of the scene that may not be subject to correction by either party. That is not fair.

Finally, our law requires that you not read or listen to any news accounts of the case, and that you not attempt to research any fact, law, or person related to the case. Your decision must be based solely on the testimony and other evidence presented in this courtroom. It would not be fair for you to base your decision on some reporter's view or opinion, or upon information that you acquire outside the courtroom from a source that cannot be challenged or cross-examined by the parties.

These rules are designed to help guarantee a fair trial, and our law accordingly provides for serious consequences if the rules are not followed. Any juror who violates these restrictions I have explained to you jeopardizes the fairness of these proceedings, and a mistrial could result that would require the entire trial process to start over. As you can imagine, a mistrial is a tremendous expense and inconvenience to the parties, the Court, and the taxpayers. If any juror is exposed to any outside information, or has any difficulty whatsoever in following these instructions, please notify the Court immediately. If any juror becomes aware that one of your fellow jurors has done something that violates these instructions, you are obligated to report that to the Court as well.

Additionally, if you hear or observe anything about this case outside this courtroom, whether inadvertently or otherwise, you must immediately inform the Court at the beginning of our next session. Do not discuss any of these things with your fellow jurors at any time.

I trust that you understand and appreciate the importance of following these rules and, in accord with your oath and promise, I know that you will do so.
